

Break On Through to the Other Side

You know the day destroys the night, night divides the day, tried to run, tried to hide, break on through to the other side, break on through to the other side, break on through to the other side, yeah.

We chased our pleasures here, dug our treasures there, but can you still recall, the time we cried, break on through to the other side, break on through to the other side...

I found an island in your arms, country in your eyes, arms that chain us, eyes that lie, break on through to the other side, break on through to the other side, break on through, oww! Oh, yeah!

Made the scene week-to-week, day-to-day, hour-to-hour: the gate is straight, deep and wide, break on through to the other side, break on through to the other side...

Break on Through (To the Other Side) from The Doors (1967)

The cosmic roller coaster is about to get into gear full force. Everything that's been happening this past month is happening on a cosmic level and is breaking down the facade cast on our planet by the matrix manipulators. The lies are crumbling even though the liars continue to spin more lies. The roller coaster is getting ready to take its final descent. What is not rooted in a secure foundation will soon totally fly off the handle. The lies and cheating are causing much chaos on all levels and affecting everyone. The money handlers are getting worried and trying to grab their last backroom profits at our expense. The major financial corporations and banks depend on our not knowing their backroom deals and are changing their finance policies yet again, even more at our expense, by trying to rip us off without us paying attention. Because they are not obligated to ask us to "opt in" to their backroom rip-offs they are doing it assuming we won't read the fine print. I have begun spending hours reading the fine print and I'm pissed! I'm canceling accounts because I'm suddenly finding finance charges being run up that I never had before. I have spent weeks fighting with financial services that are screwing up my accounts and finances, expecting that I won't notice or won't do anything. I'm confronting all the negative forces that are trying to take me on their ride down the road to hell. I prefer a higher-level of consciousness and business ethic. Even ex-president Clinton is finally speaking up about the web of lies that has surfaced since he's been out of office. The White House fascists are in full gear for the November elections. The wheat is finally being separated from the chaff. We are all part of this separation which is occurring now as a result of major cosmic centrifugal forces. The spin is separating the light weights from the heavy weights; sort of like the scales of justice. And we must all see it for what it is and stand up for what is right and ethical.

So what can we expect as we prepare for the final descent through the galactic star gate? First, hold on tight and don't give in to the liars and thieves. Things are going to get very rough either right before the November elections or following the elections. While I don't wish to sound negative, expect the worst: a red-alert terrorist threat, courtesy of Bush/Cheney friends in high places, and even martial law, if the fascists don't think they'll keep control of Congress. However, it won't matter who gets into office, or who controls Congress. The matrix manipulators will not let go of the controls without a final battle. Even if it appears that the controls have been turned over to a kindler/gentler group of puppet controllers, the manipulators will hold tight and run the train off the track. So it's imperative that we all be prepared for the last grab for power. Additionally, we may well have a revolution here in the country as the final battle for imperialistic and totalitarian control descends into total chaos on the physical plane. Our Armageddon is fast approaching and the power players will play it to the hilt. It is what they want to keep the playing field unlevel and its citizens off guard.

Those who can't stay focused or balanced may have major breakdowns. It is going to take much effort on all our parts to focus on the positive.

There are solutions and things we can still all do to overcome the dizziness and overwhelming sense of imbalance and confusion that so many of us are experiencing. Meditating on raising the vibration of the planet will help alot. I was involved in an intense Autumn Equinox/Eclipse ceremony. People from all walks of life and all religious denominations and cultural belief systems participated. However, just as many people, many who I and my friends know, are having psychopathic or sociopathic breakdowns because they can't deal with the very dense, aggressive and oppressive energies. I understand what they're going through because I can feel the craziness around me too. However, I am working at shielding myself from it and spending much time disciplining my mind to stay focused on positive outcomes. Many will cry that this is difficult to do when they have so much else on the "physical" plane that demands their undivided attention. And that's the catch-all -- there is way too much going on in the physical plane, such as finances, personal commitments, and basic survival issues that are demanding our attention right now, more than ever before -- and this is all meant to divert us from spending much needed time focusing on spiritual relief and release.

I don't know anyone right now who is not feeling the pressure, and that pressure is building to an apex. That apex is very close, and between November and the end of next year, when Pluto spends the majority of the year re-crossing and transiting the Galactic Center, we are in for some major galactic highs and lows. If you love roller coasters, spinning, and zero gravity, buckle your seatbelt and prepare yourself for the beginning of the most turbulent ride of the last 13,000 years through the galactic wormhole. We can no longer turn back. The challenge is to face those who would choose to bind us in chains -- to the hell of a continuous state of war, economic slavery, and totalitarianism -- for yet another 13,000 years. It is time to rid the planet of the dividing forces of the dark by courageously spreading the light and truth. If you make it through to the other side, there will be much to celebrate, as well as spiritual solace to help you recover from the ordeal. Break on through to the other side!!!
