

Maya Mystery School Call to All Planetary Light Workers: Engage Those Skulls and Bowls!

A lot is going on right now on Planet Earth that is affecting the entire planet, its institutions and humanity. We see a country at war with the world and itself (the U.S.), various talking heads spinning an intricate web of lies and half-truths, and desperate power-mongers doing whatever it takes to stay in power at the expense of the human race. At least, that's what we see and hear on a daily basis, in our papers, on the news, in politics, and on the Internet from various organizations around the world.

What we don't see or hear, however, which is equally distressing and even more ominous, is taking place in the subtle realms. Only a minority even realize there's something more going on. Just contemplating that there might be something more ominous than what we already see playing out is most likely why so many remain in the dark or in denial. It takes courage and a desire to know the truth to open up the channels to truth. The truth is out there, although it is certainly not clear as day. It remains hidden in the vaults of secret societies and old Freemason traditions. Most of it deals with ancient knowledge and rituals that are being performed beyond the scrutiny of the masses. The real war is over who is going to control that knowledge and keep it permanently hidden from humanity, to be used against humanity, at our expense. And what most don't even think about, although the information is already out there, is that both George W. Bush and John Kerry, nominees for the upcoming 2004 presidential election, are two sides of the same coin; that ominous all-seeing eye on the mighty dollar bill, which is watching and manipulating public opinion to prevent us from ever seeing the truth about our leaders and their hidden agendas.

Our Congress and other world powers are fundamentally lame; more so now than ever before. They have been stripped of their power by a secret government, and their agenda is to privatize our resources and fundamentally herd the world into a slave economy. Here in the U.S. they can only do this subtly because any overt action would raise alarms. While part of this scenario does play out in the media--as many of these power-mongers are being exposed for their lies--their counterattacks silence even the bravest, and create such disdain among the masses that they become apathetic and immobile. But the battle really lies behind the scenes, within little known secret societies, whose notoriety has only come to light as a result of digging. The most ominous force at work right now is none other than the Bush/Kerry power society known as "Skull and Bones;" a force that has had control of world markets, global wars, plagues, and religious movements throughout European history and longer under various other titles.

This may come as a surprise to many. It is not a pleasant scenario. Prophets have seen this struggle for power time and time again. It is neither unusual nor even visionary to predict cause and effect. This time, however, our entire way of life and even the well-being of the planet is at stake. These misdeeds have created such an imbalance that it will take a world-wide event to cleanse the planet of the scourge that has afflicted it. This scourge is operating behind the scenes under the guise of politicians and religious leaders. Beware of men of power and affluence. They will not give up their plunder without a fight. And the battle is on using secret weapons, HAARP, and other subtle technology and wizardry to keep us off balance.

If you have days where you feel very strange and giddy, paranoid or abnormally pessimistic or self-conscious, know that you are being manipulated from afar. Find your center and breathe deep, clear your chakras, and use harmonic resonance to realign your physical and subtle energies. Most of all, do not allow yourself to fall victim to these “bad” spells. The bad days could get worse for many. But if you are aware of what is happening, believe that the truth is not necessarily what you see and hear, and use the ancient knowledge to protect yourself and control your own energy meridians, you will not only survive the evil that will pass over the lands, you can help reverse it as well.

Here is one long-term solution:

Buy yourself one or more crystal skulls, preferably a central skull and one for each of the 12 expanded chakras, buy yourself a set of Tibetan singing bowls, at least one, but preferably 12 for the expanded harmonic scale; and with your “skulls and bowls” activate a tonal frequency to protect yourself. At the same time use intent, focusing on the central crystal skull, to dissipate and reverse the evil subtle energies currently being directed at you and humanity by the evil empire.

The country and the world need light workers right now who will do this work. The only way to fight this evil is to use the ancient technologies to counter the more sophisticated technologies that the evil empire is similarly using against us; that is, “skull and bowls” vs. “skull and bones.” Get as many light workers involved as possible. Consult with existing skull priestesses in Maya Mystery Schools around the world who have the knowledge and have been empowered with this mission.

There is no linear outcome to remedying the existing evil; what will come out of this endeavor is not a choice between Bush and Kerry, but a new paradigm with a new mission that will manifest in such a way that you will know and understand the implications when it finally appears. But the key right now to winning this war is to defend the Earth and humanity through the subtle realms. That is where all light workers must be at this time.

And while we’re at it, pray for and honor the brave political, social, and creative activists who have chosen to be on the front lines at this time, especially and most recently in NYC, to raise the consciousness of the planet, but who may well fall during the upcoming battles on the physical plane. Many of them began in the 1960s and are heralding a new troop of leaders. But remember, there is much to do. Most of us have chosen to be here at this time to help with this transition. Whether our success is in the physical or subtle bodies is immaterial. Just be here now, and perform your magic!

May the force be with you.
