

Crossing the Galactic Threshold

To say the least, the sun's 2001 conjunction with the galactic center was anything but mundane. Based on numerous reports from other Sagittarians, as well as friends and acquaintances, and certainly my own experience, this crossing served as a wakeup call to those who still think everything is business-as-usual.

We are definitely at war now and it is not just on this planet. This war has to do with the choices we make and the integrity of those choices. For those who were sensitive to this December's crossing (on approximately December 12th through December 27th), the crosstalk, negative energy and psychic attacks were worse than ever. Enough to send you toward suicide or cowering and fearful to church, blindly promising to obey all the expectations that this and other institutions would impose on us.

Wrong! That's exactly what the cosmic forces that control us are hoping for: fear and limitation rather than scrutiny and analysis. As we move toward the prophesized end times, and as Planet X (otherwise known as Nibiru - see Zecharia Sitchin's works) moves back into our inner solar system (NASA sightings), the powers that be are scrambling to regain control of our planet's resources one way or another, even if it means scaring us into submission to do so.

Our pacts with these devil-gods must end. If you are psychic or a shaman, you know what I am talking about. These forces will fight us to the end but we must stand our ground and not let them destroy our planet and our humanity. We all came here to be on this planet at this time. We need to decide, from our heart of hearts, which side we're on and what we stand for. If it is just for material wealth and a smooth ride, your choices will enslave you further. If it is to protect our planet from a hostile takeover of coordinated religious, political and economic forces, you are in for a bumpy ride but you are not alone and that is why you are here. Don't let the nightmares, the voices, and the bastards get you down!

There is news in certain circles that as Planet X approaches our planet and swings by in 2003, there will be major earth upheavals and instant chaos the likes of which we haven't seen since the last time one of our continents sank. The push to land a space vehicle on Mars was NASA's attempt to find suitable underground living conditions so that certain scientists and elite could make a quick getaway. Check enterprisemission.com for more information on artificial structures that were used on Mars in the past. Others on this planet and in the know, are building underground homes in North Central U.S. to sustain themselves during the upcoming shift, which will move that current U.S. location to about the location of the equator. What has all this to do with earth resources?

The Nibiruans are resource hungry. Every time they've come here they've been collecting on pacts with kings and pharaohs for resources. The slave scenario has changed in that we are the slaves but instead we think we're part of a socially accepted workforce that gets paid for our varying degrees of work. But for some of the Nibiruans, our resource accumulation is not up to par. So this administration is scurrying to grab as much as they can so they can go into their Freemason temples, give to their keepers and be saved.

Well, it all seems very far fetched, I'm sure. But mark my words, these forces have the ability to use PSI and other psychic brainwaves to make us think we're really moving into Armageddon. Believe what you want to believe but when you get attacked, instead of running to church, create a circle of protection around yourself and fight the voices that would try to repress your spirit!

The galactic center is an amplifier of the noise and chaos that is currently occurring and of the voices of those cosmic beings who know how to use it to amplify their intentions, but the voices are not necessarily from God and the galactic center is not the only means of communicating with us. As such, expect a lot of psychic activity in the near future as we move toward the shift, whether it be in 2003 or in 2012, or in 2020. But do not become enslaved by the voices that misuse these powers: think of yourself as Frodo in Lord of the Rings; the dark force is there and you can only get rid of it by confronting it and eliminating it at the source. The Wars of Gods and Men (Sitchin) have not yet ended and we must become mentally, emotionally, and spiritually prepared to resolve our personal issues to win them.

Remember, not all is lost; you were made in God's image, and you too, are a god, believe it or not. And you chose to be here, right now. Activate your DNA strand now by going to the sacred sites and performing merkabah rituals and live up to your legacy to blossom into a full-fledged god being as you were intended to be. And by all means, do not let the voices of repression scare you into thinking otherwise!
