

Gemini New Moon: June 14, 2007

By Barbara Hand-Clow

The New Moon in Gemini is the yearly activator of our mental agility, the time to consider whether our wits are still sharp or not. This Gemini New Moon occurs just a week before the Summer Solstice, so the thoughts going through our heads during the New Moon will have a strong tendency to influence the collective mindset formulating during the Summer Solstice. For the last few months, the intentions we crafted during the Spring Equinox have been unfolding in our daily lives, and soon these things will broaden and deepen during the summer. Therefore, this New Moon in Gemini is a good time to assess what is going on in our heads and reassess what we are creating during 2007.

What have you been creating during the spring of 2007, Day Five of the Galactic Underworld-the Advanced Unifying Synthesis? How do your creations mix with the larger collective field? Gerry noticed something very interesting in the Bonaire Reporter in the 2007 Spring Equinox analysis by astronomer Jack Horkheimer, who said: "Before 1752 in England and America, the new year began when spring began on March 25 [which was when the Spring Equinox occurred in 1752]". So, before 1752, the culture operated by the same premise that "Astroflash!" is based upon. Also, anybody who follows Calleman and Clow regarding the Nine Underworlds will immediately take notice that 1752 is basically the same as 1755, when the time acceleration of the Planetary Underworld (development of industry) began. Translated this means: Pulling us away from our natural rhythms was the device used by the controllers to suck us all into becoming cogs in the industrial machine!

I propose that living by this natural yearly pattern during the thirteen years of the Galactic Underworld can move us back into synchronicity with Nature. I actually think that flowing with this ancient solar pattern can help us survive all of the great weather and Earth changes! With this idea in mind, pay close attention to your Spring Equinox intentions during the Gemini New Moon to see how you balance with the patterns of the planet. To help you with this, I will read this New Moon as a fine instrument that can open your frequencies to feel Nature. This New Moon does have that potential, but, of course, it is a very complex idea. To get there, imagine that you are in a pinball machine as the little stainless steel ball that ricochets around the bumpers amidst flashing lights and ringing sounds. Are you ready for me to pull the handle way back, tightening the spring so you can fly into the game? Here we go!

The New Moon in 24 degrees Gemini is sextiled on the left by Mars in 23 Aries and sextiled on the right by Saturn in 21 Leo (which closely trines Mars in 23 Aries). The New Moon is also trined by Neptune in 22 Aquarius, squared by Uranus in 19 Pisces, and opposed by Pluto in 28 Sagittarius on the Galactic Center. These seven aspects are in such close harmonic resonance that the New Moon must be analyzed with all of them in one sentence, and I will put the various planets in parenthesis to clarify things. Here goes!

Pull back, thwack, ping! Our search for mental clarity of our essential being (Sun) by means of our feelings (Moon) is strengthened and energized by our vital force (Mars) and the structure of our wills (Saturn), and our spiritual knowing (Neptune) is felt in its most ideal aspect while the need to transform all reality (Uranus) is coming out of the collective spiritual field of the planet, exactly when the god of the deep (Pluto) delves into our innermost essence to challenge our sense of self on all levels.

The big mythical movie called "The Human Journey" is offering plenty of scenes out there that mirror back the inner processes we are living out as a collective species. My latest book, The Mayan Code, predicts that the next evolutionary step during the Galactic Underworld (AD 1999-2011) is the emergence of a new Christology-an entirely new understanding about what Christ brought to Earth two thousand years ago, and what he means to us now. The corresponding Day Five of the National Underworld is AD 40-434, so we can understand the current Advanced Unifying Synthesis of Day Five by examining what occurred during those 396 years (right after the Crucifixion through the early years of Judeo-Christianity). In The Mayan Code, I predicted that 2007 would see the emergence of an entirely new understanding of Christ's work on the planet. And, because Dan Brown's DaVinci Code emerged during the early days of the Galactic Underworld as a blockbuster movie and a gigantic bestseller in book form, I predicted that the real truth about Christ and Mary Magdalene would erupt during 2007. It has!

The most important archeological find of the last two thousand years was brought to public attention in March 2007 in the James Cameron film, "The Lost Tomb of Jesus," and in the book, The Jesus Family Tomb by authors Simcha Jacobovici and Charles Pellegrino. Based on verified scientific testing of a family tomb in Jerusalem, Mary Magdalene was buried with Jesus and their son Judah, as well as the Virgin Mary and some of the brothers of Jesus. So what? Well, the contents and nature of this tomb expose the early Vatican cover-up of the real story of the life of Jesus, and this discovery will shake the celibate foundations of Christianity. This tomb blows wide open the Global Elite's use and abuse of Jesus for constructing their own power base, and it melts down judgment in the hearts of all religious people. Who cares? Realizing that Christ is the beloved of Nature and of all humanity, nobody will be willing to go to war and kill-because there is nothing to fight about.

You will have to see this film and read the book to decide what you think. I believe this new universality (Oneness) of Christ and his sacred beloved will build all the way through 2011; this is the great opening of the heart that can save the planet from destruction by the Elite. I'd suggest each one of you take responsibility for exploring this knowledge and disseminating it during the Advanced Unifying Synthesis of 2007. This New Moon chart has the correct energetic resonance for birthing the new Christology that is based on male/female balance.

Recheck the one-sentence summary of the New Moon (in the "pinball machine" above) before reading more about the various aspects to the New Moon; you need to feel this New Moon in a holistic way. Saturn opposes Neptune in Aquarius, and the third and last opposition will occur on June 25 right after the Summer Solstice. Saturn in Leo opposing Neptune in Aquarius has been radically transmuting the world's religious structures by means of the will of the people, who are experiencing a great revolution deep within. When Saturn is in Leo, the people take their power back. During this transit of Saturn through Leo, Neptune in Aquarius opposes Saturn, which enables people to see that the world religions have been disempowering them for at least two thousand years. This opposition of Saturn and Neptune is a "signature" aspect of the discovery of the tomb of Jesus and Mary Magdalene in two ways: (1) When the tomb was first opened on March 28, 1980, Saturn in Virgo was exactly squaring Neptune in Sagittarius. The Israeli archeologists stored the contents, closed the tomb, and said little about it after 1980, so it was nearly forgotten until 2005; (2) The individuals who revived interest in the tomb were in the middle and latter stages of verifying its contents during the Day Four midpoint in 2005, and also when the first two Saturn/Neptune oppositions occurred in 2006 through early 2007. Their work was kept closely under wraps to protect it until March 2007, and the big revelation should occur during the last Saturn/Neptune opposition right after the Summer Solstice. A third signature aspect of this discovery is Pluto conjuncting the Galactic Center.

Uranus in 19 degrees Pisces is pushing this discovery into the public eye very aggressively because it quincunxes Saturn in Leo. This discovery is not going to be hidden again, since James Cameron, the director of "Titanic" and other major films, is in charge. The outcome can be seen in the planetary aspects: Uranus in Pisces (2003 through the spring of 2011) inspires the radical transformation of all religious structures during the end of the Mayan Calendar, while Neptune in Aquarius (1998 through early 2012) transmutes the power of the revolution itself. These two great outer planets that guide our spirituality are in "mutual reception" (in each other's home signs) during most of the Galactic Underworld, the end of the Mayan Calendar. Uranus and Neptune in mutual reception are helping us see how we can clear away two thousand years of lies and deception so that we can birth Christ in the heart. With Neptune trining-and Uranus squaring-the New Moon, our hearts will be opened this month as a critical mass feels the power of love that once walked among us. Uranus in Pisces quincunx Saturn in Leo will push us to see that lust for power and greed has blocked access to our spiritual heritage.

Mars in Aries sextiling Neptune in Aquarius will offer the public the energy to pursue truth instead of giving up and feeling that things are impossible. Many people will be very shaken by the implications of this tomb and the cover-up over its contents by Israeli archeologists for twenty-five years. Many researchers will rediscover the deep commonality we had in the world during the early Judeo-Christian period-the Advanced Unifying Synthesis of the National Underworld during AD 40-396, the period that corresponds with 2007. Neptune is retrograde until the end of October 2007, which could keep a public lid on the full religious implications of finding the tomb of Jesus and Mary Magdalene. However, Pluto will be exactly conjunct the Galactic Center again in July 2007. Pluto opposing the New Moon in Gemini suggests that the truth could explode during this lunar month. Do not expect this to be on big media, although the Discovery Channel ran "The Lost Tomb of Jesus" in March. This will explode first in scholarly religious circles and within the New Consciousness movement. Remember, polls a few months ago revealed that more than 60 percent of the American public believes that the American government either participated in 9/11 or allowed it to happen-but you don't hear about that anymore on the evening news.

I expect this awakening and new knowledge to be very healing for many. Chiron retrograde in 15 degrees Aquarius sextiles Jupiter retrograde in Sagittarius, which suggests that even our finances and security are involved in this healing. Of course they are! We have all lost enormous resources and security because of the wasteful and immoral Global Elite wars! Jupiter will go all the way back to 10 degrees Sagittarius and then will go direct in August. Jupiter in Sagittarius teaches us to evaluate our long-term goals and to expand what we expect out of life. For me, I expect to live in a spiritually inspired world in which the people know that all levels of the divine are part of Nature and the third dimension. That is the truth that the people have forgotten like the Tomb of Jesus collecting dust in Jerusalem for two thousand years.

Venus in Leo is relatively unaspected this month, and so the power of the feminine is a wildcard, a wildcard like the bride of Christ resting next to Jesus in their family tomb. Mercury, the messenger of the gods, goes retrograde in 12 degrees Cancer less than one day after the New Moon. This puts heavy emphasis on the nurturance of the goddess and all mothers until Mercury goes into Leo in early August. This year, all three Mercury retrogrades are in water signs-Cancer, Scorpio, and Pisces-so we can be sure that much of our awakening is going to be feeling-based, very intuitive, and very much in our hearts. That is exactly the support that we need to face up to the fact that we have been lied to, diverted from our right to truth, and used for many years because we were ignorant. Well, as a result of this New Moon in Gemini, the cover-up is going to be exposed. The more you understand about how this divine plan is unfolding, the better you will handle it. There are many people and agencies that do not want the truth to be known, but it will be whether anybody likes it or not.

This is such an international reading that I am not going to read the chart cast for Washington, DC, for house analysis. Actually, I may stop reading for Washington, DC, altogether because what is going on there has become increasingly irrelevant to the rest of the world. Specifically, the US once had a great deal of influence because it was thought of as a beacon for freedom and democracy. If you recall the reading for the Taurus New Moon, the US was in a constitutional crisis because Congress attempted to challenge the Bushites. Well, Congress backed down in the face of the bully, and there is little more to say. Oh well, the US got way too much attention for too long, so that's just the way things go. Remember to check the reading for the Summer Solstice on or before June 21-and have fun reading about the lost tomb of Jesus! Our spiritual awakening is much greater than politics and petty bullies. The truth shall set you free!
