

Entering Phase Two of the Paradigm Shift of the Ages!
Aluna Joy Yaxkin - August 18th 2007

When the Star Elders said that the doorway, between Summer solstice on June 21st and the peak of the Perseid Meteor showers on August 12th, was a rare doorway in which technological atrocities could be healed, I said okay... sure thing . . . I'll send a call out to the light workers and healers of the world, and we will get to work. No problem.

The Star Elders said that in this time we could heal the breaks between dimensions that were caused by the destruction of the planet Maldek, the misuse of technology at the fall of Atlantis, and damage caused by nuclear bombs detonated at Hiroshima and nuclear underground testing. Most importantly they said that we would heal cracked souls that were caused by the misuse of this type of technology. This healing was to take place not only in our past, and in our present, but also would pave the way to a glorious future. This was a very tall order I thought, but I have learned that no order is too tall for the awakening community any more. We are becoming more aware of the manifesting power of the light within us.

It was a simple but clear message I received on Solstice, June 21st. I had no idea how much it would impact my life and those around me. I guess I upset the apple cart a bit because I experienced some rare attacks from some beings, physical and non-physical, who would like to control or hurt us. PS... they didn't get very far with me :) Already, when I received the solstice message, I was feeling a myriad of unusual, un-diagnosable symptoms. I was feeling so leveled that I could hardly sit up. My brain fuzz was extreme. My body felt like it never woke up during the day, and I felt that a huge part of me was somewhere else. To top it off, I was in constant head to toe pain. It felt like a bomb went off inside of me. Simply... I felt like hell, and I wasn't much fun to be around.

Looking back now, I am a bit miffed at the Star Elders why they didn't tell me that healing Atlantis was going to be such hard work, and so darn painful. But I've noticed that they never tell us what we might perceive as the down side of any process, doorway, or project that we are called to do. I don't think they give any energy to possible down sides. But as of August 12th, at the peak of the Perseid meteor showers, I can finally shout like an old time gospel healer . . . Hallelujah . . . I am healed, I am free, I am saved, and I am back! The fatigue is GONE! I can think straight again, and I can actually feel my body aches and pains fading fast! Whoa what a wild ride!

During my 53 day long ordeal in this doorway, feeling more dead than alive, surprisingly I was able to effectively continue Star Elder sessions. As long as I was doing a session, I felt wonderful. But as soon as I hung up the phone, I took a nap. :-) Archangel Michael and the Star Elders sent me some very interesting and wonderful folks to work with during this doorway. Most had ancient connections to Maldek and Atlantis, and had karmic connections to those who misused the advanced technology. These ones were corded, cursed, abused or altered by the fall of Atlantis and Maldek and/or even presently controlled by what looked like arch villains of those ages. It was interesting and I learned a lot.

I found myself face to face with some who were still assisting in misguided Atlantean dirty work. Some were conscious of this, others were not. I also found myself working to recycle and clear out others in different times, spaces and dimensions that needed rebooting. I ran into a lot of astral beings and demonic souls and a lot of strange looking characters. Most went back to the light without a struggle. It was time for them to be healed. All deserve to be healed if we understand that we are all ONE. There is no more US against THEM. That was part of an old program of a fading paradigm.

The clients that were the most impressive for me to work with as an oracle, were the ones that were corded to the very core of the hierarchy of the Atlantean darkside. As we began to clear these dark ones out and send them to the universal prison for their energy to be recycled and cleaned up, I noticed that there were hundreds, even thousands of cords connected from these arch villains to light workers. As I unhooked the cord from the one I was personally working with, Archangel Michael unhooked all the cords to the hundreds even thousands of others. All of these light workers were cleared and set free and the arch villains were put in jail. This happened many times during this doorway. So if for no apparent reason you suddenly felt lifted and freed . . . you can thank Archangel Michael for that one. I'm sure a few of you reading this have felt this release.

One session did stick in my mind particularly clear. There was one being we uncovered that was a mastermind, sort of the master arch villain of the Atlantean fall. He didn't look all that human to me either. He reminded me a bit of that dark character "Ra" from the movie Stargate. Oddly enough, he seemed to be there all by himself and fairly dis-empowered. I think we collectively had already cleared out his entourage of dark cronies, and evil supporters. When Archangel Michael saw this one, he sent him to a place I've never seen anyone being sent to before. Archangel Michael said he and Source banished him from the universe and sent him to a place of no life or light. In other words, this one's energy was so dark that they couldn't recycle it to be reused. I didn't know that there was a place where there was no life. I think this place of no life might have been a black hole in the universe. Black holes will gobble up and recycle anything in its path.

At that moment, all sinister Atlantean Lords connected with this reality were seriously undermined. Their work was sabotaged by the powerful light that we are. Their projects have been destabilized and their energy is being rebooted as I write this. They have lost their controlled workforces. They have no power left. This was a pleasant surprise, as it was my impression that we were going to work with the Earth's energies and cracked souls. The uncovering and the banishment of the Maldekian / Atlantean arch villain of all time . . . well that was simply the icing on the cake. So sweet!

The Star Elders also tell me that many, many, many of you out there took this doorway seriously and did a considerable amount of work. I know I can only take a very small bit of credit for my small part in this healing and clearing. The Star Elders want to say thank you and send all of you great honor and respect for the hard work you have done in this doorway. It certainly wasn't an easy doorway to live through. The empaths had a rough go of it. But I guess if they had told us how difficult it would be, we might have gone on strike and not done the work.

SO NOW WHAT....

The Star Elders say that the infrastructure of the darkness has been undermined. Our personal infrastructure is out dated, and our past paradigm is now in a state of collapse. Sounds like fun, doesn't it? But this is IT. It is the manifestation of the divine plan, and we get to be major players!

Now that the dimensional breaches on the Earth have been repaired and many cracked souls have been healed, the Star Elders say that what we will experience next is a re-balancing of the Earth's energies and grids. They say that a lot of the Earth's infrastructure is now outdated and will be recycled. This infrastructure includes our material world, but also the infrastructure of our consciousness.

Our outer world is beginning to mirror a state of collapse that is actually a glorious rebirth happening within us. If you watch the news you can see this happening every where. Steam pipes in New York City exploding like bombs, mines collapsing, bridges collapsing and a myriad of strange accidents. Our old out-of-dated programs are being cleared out. Yes . . . we are having an extreme makeover, a makeover of the consciousness, a makeover for the spirit that is erasing all the wrinkles in our souls. If it is old and outdated, it is time to make it over.

They also say our planetary gyroscope will be rebooted. This will not only affect the Earth's tectonic plates, but we also might see things like an acceleration of helicopter accidents. Our physical, internal gyroscope will also be rebooted. Symptoms can range from feeling a little dizzy and out of it. Those that are still in need of much healing might react by resorting to weird and illogical acts of violence. We need to remember that these ones are part of the ONE, and all deserve to be healed. After all, we are all children of the light. Some of us just had to endure more convoluted and confusing paths in this life.

The acceleration of volcanic activity and earthquakes in the last week, and continuing for the next few months, is a part of this re-balancing. Earthquakes, volcanic activity, grand tropical storms and the like will give great release to the planet and clear out old, out-dated infrastructure. This is going to feel good to you, and should not cause you any fear. It is time to quit seeing these realignments and shifts as something to fear or to worry about. This isn't the end of the world . . . it is just the beginning of a new one.

Now as far as manifesting our divine purpose in this life, it is a whole new ballgame. New messages are coming in. New projects are being birthed. The doors have opened for us to begin work on projects that we have been sitting on for years, even decades. Now that the arch villain of all time has been banished from every avenue of our reality, it is now safe for us to bring out the best and the brightest that is inside us. We'll find that we don't need to hide in the closet anymore with the treasures that we have within. We have a green light. It is time to step on the gas pedal even further and get going. It's time to say, "no more fear" about being attacked for what you are about to say, share, or release into the world. You are now safe to be who you are. Remember the light has undermined the darkness. Who is this LIGHT? Well.... It is YOU!

Raphael and I celebrated the closing of this doorway by going to Lowell Observatory to look at amazing celestial objects and view the meteors. It was a fabulous reminder to us how vast, huge and beautiful the universe is. We understand the concept "as above, so below." What we see outside of us, is also that which is within us. There is nothing we can't manifest, if we remember this.
